

Ireland in 10 days

About

The country

Ireland is a country belonging to the European Union but it is not part of the Schengen area. Ireland has lush landscapes, dramatic cliffs and is surrounded by sea and mountains. It is nature in its purest state as well as the ideal place for the lovers of beautiful hikes. You will have no difficulty finding a region and activities according to your interests. Whether for summer or winter activities, nature camping, hiking or any other interest, you will find the right region for you.

Prices are reasonable according to your budget. Ireland is adapted to all types of travel, whether it's a family trip, a group trip, for an event, solo trip or more. It is possible to visit everything on your own. However, it is recommended to be more than one person to venture into the forests, since there are wild animals.

The areas

Doolin is a small town located on the Atlantic coast. It is near the Burren region and the Cliffs of Moher. Besides, you can get to the Aran Islands from Doolin by ferry. There are several attractions and sites to visit.

Galway, is a port city located on the west coast of Ireland. Eyre Square is a popular meeting place surrounded by traditional 18th century shops and pubs. There are many concerts of traditional Irish music. There are also some remnants of the medieval city walls to see. This city will blow your mind!

Dublin is the capital of Ireland. It is located on the east coast of Ireland. It has several historical monuments. It is an extremely cultural destination. There are many museums to visit. It is a city that is young and the perfect place for nightlife! You will not be disappointed with this city with all its wealth!
